

TAKE FIVE

■ What do you like to do to relax?
■ "Lay in bed and watch TV or read. Anything laying down that comes with no responsibility is relaxing."

■ What talent do you wish you were born with?

■ "I wish I was good at writing songs. That's something I've always wanted to do. I took guitar lessons. I played piano when I was young. I think it's amazing that Scott [Clifton, Dillon] can write songs. He's really good. It really is a talent that people are born with."

■ If you could have a shopping spree at any store, which one would you choose?

■ "Bloomingdale's, because it has a little bit of every single store in it."

■ What's something that so far, you've been afraid to try?

■ "Bungee jumping or skydiving. Jumping out into the air seems exciting, but I'm scared [laughs]. But you only live life once, so you've got to do it."

■ Do you have a nickname?

■ "Other than the horrible ones my brothers named me when I was little, people usually call me Jules."
